Genoua, July 12. N. S.

OUR Senate have ordered two Galleys to be forthwith fitted out to cruiſe againſt the Corſairs of Barbary, of whom we hear there are ſeveral abroad in theſe Seas. Two of the Galleys of Turſis are lately come into our Port, one of which has on board the Count de Lemos General of the Neapolitan Galleys, who is going to Naples. The Moſcovite Prince Szeremet, and ſeveral other Moſcovites, are lately arrived here from Venice, and deſign in a few days to go to Milan. By a Felucca come hither in 7 days from Barcelona we have advice, that 14 French Galleys put into that Port on the 30th of the laſt month, and would depart thence in a day or two for Cadiz.

Turin, July 12. The Duke of Savoy went laſt Wedneſday to Rocca near Mondovi, to view his Forces which are now encamped near that place, and will continue there moſt part of the Summer: On the 20th Inſtant he deſigns to go to St. Maurice, and to make ſome ſtay at that place. The Marquis of Leganez, late Governor of Milan, arrived here laſt Saturday from Milan, and ſets out to morrow for Madrid. The Duke of Savoy has cauſed an Edict to be publiſhed, purſuant to the late Treaty between him and the Moſt Chriſtian King, forbidding the Vaudois who are his Subjects to have any Communication with the Subjects of France, and requiring all the French Proteſtants that are ſettled in his Dominions on pain of Death to depart the ſame within two months.

Venice, July 18. Laſt week came in here the Jacob, Proſperous-African, and Reſolution Merchant Ships, and this day the Samuel, Capt. Hart Commander. We have received an Account from Napoli di Romania, that the Ottoman Fleet was come out of the Dardanelles, and lay off of the Iſland of Mettelino, and that the Capt. General Mocenigo had thereupon ordered all the Ships under his Command, to be ready, forthwith to put to Sea, and would ſail in few days to meet the Enemy. Our Letters from Cattaro of the 17th paſt ſay, a Party of Turks were come near Trebigne in Dalmatia, with a deſign to make an Incurſion in thoſe parts, but upon the approach of our Forces they retired in great haſte.

Warſaw, July 17. The King of Poland is now on his way to Lemberg, where it is believed he will arrive about the 19th or 20th of this month. The Forces of this Kingdom are marching thither from their ſeveral Quarters with all poſſible expedition. Part of the King's Forces which come from Saxony and Hungary are already arrived on the Frontiers, as likewiſe a conſiderable Train of Heavy Cannon, with all ſorts of Ammunition from Dreſden. The reſt of the Troops are ordered to haſten their march thither; and 'tis expected the whole Army will be joined together by the end of this month, and in a readineſs to open the Campagne, which 'tis ſtill ſaid, will be done, with beſieging, or at leaſt blocking up of Caminieck. The Negociation for Compoſing the Differences between the Familles of Sapieha and Oginsky are ſtill carried on, though hitherto with little ſucceſs, each ſide inſiſting on their own Demands, and being as unwilling to comply with what is deſired by the other.

Vienna, July 19. Prince Eugene of Savoy will ſet out next week for Hungary, and Admiral Aſſemberg is preparing to go and command the Emperor's Fleet on the Danube, waiting only for the arrival of ſome Seamen from Hambourg, who are on their way hither, to ſerve on board the 6 new Veſſels which were lately built near this City, and lie ready to fall down to Peter-Waradin, as ſoon as they are compleatly Manned. Our Letters from Hungary ſay, the Enemy have not yet attempted any thing againſt Titul, the Country thereabouts being ſo overflowed by the late Rains, that it was impoſſible for them to attack it by Land; and that the Turks who are aſſembled near Belgrade, have lately received a Reinforcement of about 4000 Men. In the mean while our Forces are drawing together at their General Rendezvous, where it is hoped they will be all arrived by the latter end of this month. The Czar of Moſcovy continues ſtill here; his Ambaſſadors have not yet deſired a publick Audience of the Emperor, but it's believed they will, in few days.

Paris, July 31. The Court returned this week to Verſailles. Major Jordan, Envoy Extraordinary from Poland, has had Audience of the King, and notified to him the King of Poland, his Maſter's Acceſſion to the Crown. Monſieur de Vendoſme, Grand Prior of France, was by the King's Order committed yeſterday to the Baſtile, on account of ſome diſreſpectful Words he gave the Prince of Conti in a Diſpute which happened between them the night before. We hear from Breſt, that 7 Men of War of about 50 Guns each are fitting out there and in other Ports at the Expence of ſeveral Merchants, who, it is ſaid, deſign to ſend them to the Southern Iſlands.

Bruſſels, July 29. The Elector of Bavaria went laſt Sunday to Mariemont, and is expected back in a day or two. We hear from Liege, that the Elector of Cologne has given Orders to reinforce the Gariſon of Dinant, and has made the Count de Heers Governor of that place, and the Baron of Rooſt Governor of Huy. Our Advices from the French Conqueſts ſay, they are adding ſome new Works to the Fortifications of Furnes,
